

SHĪ^cA ISLAM, SECTS AND SUFISM

Historical dimensions, religious practice and methodological considerations

edited by

Frederick De Jong

RB fa 88

Publications of the M.Th. Houtsma Stichting
Utrecht
1992

CONTENTS

Preface	vi
Editor's note	vii
Herbert Eisenstein Sunnite accounts of the subdivisions of the Shī'a	1
Carmela Baffioni Traces of "secret sects" in the Rasā'il of the Ikhwān al-Şafā'	10
Gerhard Hoffmann An Ismā'īlī/Fatimid stronghold in Iraq? The case of al-Basāsīrī	26
Louis Pouzet Activités ismaéliennes en Syrie aux XII ^e -XIII ^e /VI ^e -VII ^e siècles	35
Monika Gronke Der Heilige und die Gesellschaft. Soziale und politische Dimensionen der frühen Şafawīya	50
Bernd Radtke Between projection and suppression. Some considerations concerning the study of Sufism	70
Manuela Marín The early development of zuhd in al-Andalus	83
Momtazur Rahman Tarafdar Influence of the Natha cult on the growth of Sufism in Bengal	97
Butrus Abu-Manneh Shaykh Ahmed Ziyā'uddīn el-Gümüşhanevi and the Ziyā'i-Khālīdī suborder	105
Alexander Fodor Types of Shī'ite amulets from Iraq	118